Welcome to this stunning and spacious five-bedroom three-bathroom family home, built in 2005 and offering a generous 2,600 square feet of living space. Perfectly designed for modern living, this impressive property features a living area overlooking the beautifully landscaped garden, a double garage and a master suite – a true hub for family life and entertaining.

Upon entry, there is an inviting hallway leading to the three reception rooms, study, downstairs w/c, kitchen and dining room. The kitchen offers, base and eyelevel units, an integral dishwasher, oven and induction hob as well as a breakfast bar with space for two seats,. The breakfast bar is perfect for informal dining or socialising with guests. Leading on from the kitchen, the utility offers additional storage, as well as plumbing for a washing machine. The lounge is a light and spacious space, which is perfect for spending time with loved ones or spending quiet time alone. The French doors from the lounge lead out to the patio area, leading onto a well maintained lawn and raised decking area, perfect for entertaining. Additionally, if you're in need of another reception room for family living, the snug provides a great space.

Leading up to the second floor, you'll find four bedrooms, a family bathroom and a master suite boasting a large neutral en-suite. From the master bedroom, you'll find access to your private balcony overlooking the tranquil garden, perfect for enjoying warmer evenings. Bedrooms four and five both benefit from built in wardrobes and one of the guest rooms is currently used as a walk in wardrobe. The family bathroom offers a separate bath, shower, toilet and a double sink, whilst being adorned in neutral tiles. The en-suite to the master offers a walk in shower, toilet and sink.

At the rear of the property lies an expansive garden. Beautifully maintained by the current owners, the garden is predominantly laid to lawn, with mature shrubbery. A delightful patio and decked seating area provides the perfect spots for outdoor relaxation and dining, while a charming summerhouse overlooks. The outdoor kitchen featuring a pizza oven is an amazing addition and is perfect for summer entertaining. The whole property provides great space for guests and entertaining or a growing family.
